

Harshman Cemetery

Harshman Cemetery is a deeply personal place for many families. We understand the want to interact with and honor loved ones, but we must also respect the historic and communal atmosphere that makes Harshman Cemetery special.

Please respect the Harshman Cemetery for the benefit of community members, past and future, by reading and abiding by our rules that include caring for and decorating grave sites. These regulations will ensure Harshman Cemetery is serving Riverside for many generations to come.

To provide a more consistent and organized appearance, and to provide better and more efficient maintenance practices, the following rules and regulations governing memorials are in effect starting October 1, 2023.
